

Rights Respecting

Going for Silver!

As you all know, we were thrilled to achieve the Bronze Award for Rights Respecting last year. This year, we are hoping to achieve the Silver Award in May. There is lots of information on the website about what it means to be a Rights Respecting School as well as information about the articles.

Please take a look to find out more: Newall Green Primary School: Rights Respecting

Article of the week

Every Tuesday, the children have an assembly in class which focuses on one of the articles. There are 42 articles which the children learn about and these are explored throughout the year through activities in class, whole school assemblies and events and class assemblies. Have a chat with your child at home to find out more about what they have learnt so far. To take a look at the article of the week assemblies this year, please see the website: Newall Green Primary School: Article of the week

Rights Ranger

Our school councillors last year created our Rights Ranger, who spends a week in each class throughout the year, to spread the message of Rights. Please speak to your child to find out if the ranger has visited them yet and check out the website to see some examples of what he has been doing in classes. ## Class charters

Our school council helped to rewrite our behaviour policy so that it reflected our Rights Respecting ethos. You can see a copy of our policy and whole class charter on the website: Newall Green Primary School: Behaviour

Each class also creates their own class charter which is updated each term. The class charter is an agreement of the rights that they will be focusing on and the pupils and adults work together to agree the duties of the Rights holders (children) and duty bearers (adults). Speak to your child to find out about the charter they
